Corentus Results-Driven

Corentus, Inc. is a results-driven consulting firm specializing in team-focused solutions that build organizational success.

---

25+ years of experience
30+ countries worldwide,
addressing teams' unique challenges and goals.

Our time-tested approach delivers immediate
productivity gains,
virtually or in person.

Real Teams, Real Work, Real Results.

Our clients derive significant value from our proven approach to enhancing individual, team, and organizational effectiveness - across industries and with various team types, including intact, hybrid, cross-functional, matrixed, agile, and just-in-time teams.

Real productivity gains and improved cohesiveness among team leaders and members are achieved by integrating learning and development into a team's real-time environment.

"Every member of the ELT has sought me out to say, with great enthusiasm, that they were hugely impressed with all the coaching and the Corentus tools." —Oxfam America

"It was, in short, a 'home run'. I have heard nothing but great feedback. Thanks for making it a success. Tipping my hat off to you - the work you do is amazing." —MITRE

Focus Areas Identified for Accelerated Development

Accelerated growth and development occur when a team decides upon their focus area, works together to elevate their skills and competencies in this area, and celebrates their achievements in attaining a level of proficiency together.

The Corentus Team Wheel with the Key Dimensions of Team Effectiveness guides teams to identify their focus areas for growth and development.

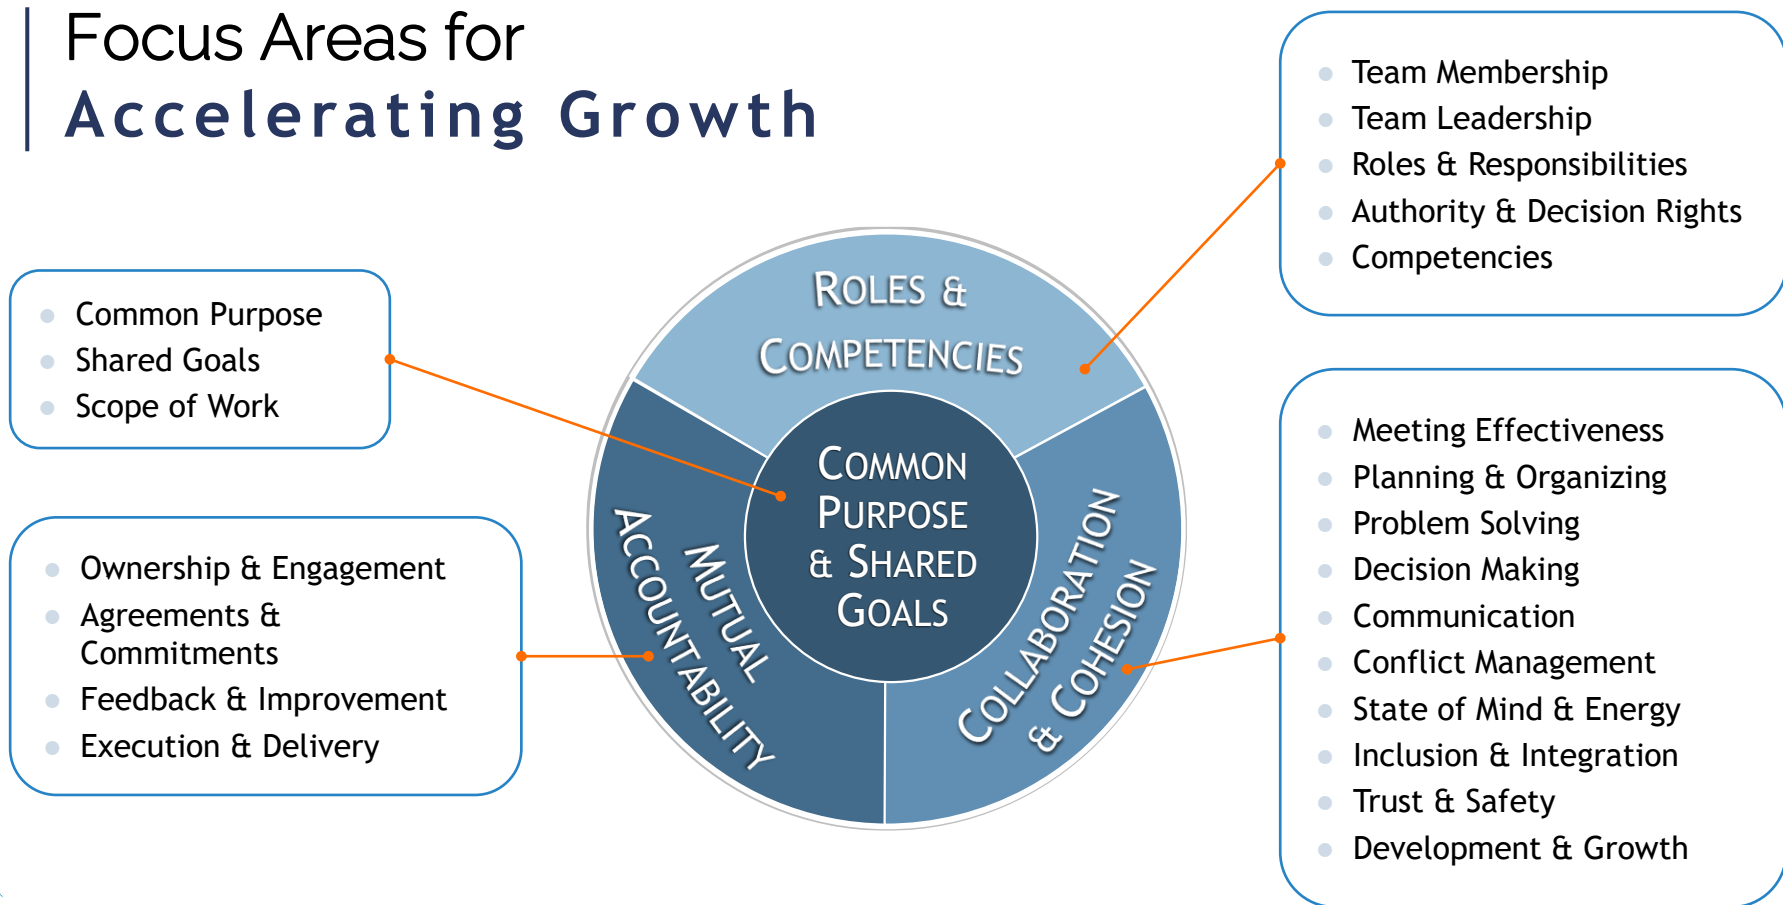

Time-tested and easy-to-apply methods and tools accelerate a team's progress.

Integrating development into real work in real-time contributes to solidifying a more cohesive and productive set of team norms.

"Bravo! It was truly a great day, and I'm hearing feedback consistently. What is so exciting is that we have tools we can implement immediately. I can't believe how many times a day I use them!" — L'Oréal
